

ABSTRACT KEY GUIDELINES

Abstracts must be submitted online by Friday, 20 November 2026, 11:59pm, Australian Central Standard time (GMT+9:30). No other means of submission will be considered.

1. All details must be completed online so that the automated system can process your submission.
2. The person submitting the abstract is assumed to be the lead author and the person who will receive all correspondence in relation to the abstract.
3. We will accept a max of 3 abstract submissions per lead author/person submitting the abstract.
4. Abstracts must showcase your work in relation to this year's theme.
5. We suggest using this template for your abstract to ensure all important information is included.

In your abstract, please specify the following:

- Title of presentation
 - Main institution/organisation which the research/paper can be attributed to
 - Presenters' / authors names
 - Co-authors names
5. The abstract must be a maximum of 300 words in length, excluding the title, authors/co-authors and institution etc
 6. Research based papers should be structured to include an introduction/ purpose, methods, results and conclusions. All other papers should be structured to include an introduction, main body and conclusion.
 7. Presentations from individuals or groups are welcome
 8. You must select whether you will present in person if successful and whether you are an ILC member
 9. Prepare your abstract in a way that it is suitable for publication in the conference program and book of abstracts (only those accepted for oral presentations will be published). We suggest using this template.

SELECTION PROCESS & ACCEPTANCE NOTIFICATION

Once we have received abstracts, the Scientific Committee will review them and consider how they fit into this year's theme and program.

It may be that, to better fit with the program, we will ask you to modify your presentation in some way.

It is anticipated that the submitting author will be notified of their abstract submission outcome via email no later than Friday, 4 December 2026.
